WMHNV Rules of Association on membership

5.1. Eligibility for membership

- (a) Subject to these Rules, a person may be a member of the Network under any one of the following three classes of membership:
 - (i) an individual member, being a woman who:
 - (A) is in sympathy with the Network's objects as set out in rule 3.2; and
 - (B) agrees to abide by these Rules and any other policies adopted by the Network;
 - (ii) a member body, being either an incorporated body or an unincorporated body whose rights and privileges as a member shall be exercised by a representative individual, being a woman nominated by the member body in writing to the Treasurer; and
 - (iii) an honorary life member, being a woman who has been recommended by the Committee, in a citation included in the notice of a general meeting, to be admitted as an honorary life member for distinguished services rendered in furtherance of the objects of the Network, and who has been admitted as an honorary life member by a resolution of that general meeting carried by the vote of a three quarters majority.

3.2 Objectives

The objectives of the Network are:

- (b) to provide information about the prevention and management of women's mental health issues to health professionals, service providers, carers, consumers and the public; and
- (c) to promote research into women's mental health issues; and
- (d) to promote opportunities for training and education in women's mental health issues and women-sensitive practice; and
- (e) to develop partnerships with key mental health and women's organisations to promote responsiveness to women's mental health needs; and
- (f) to create opportunities for women consumers, carers and service providers to work together in addressing mental health issues, and to share their experiences and information; and
- (g) to promote systemic change in order to make mental health policies and services more responsive to women's needs;
- (h) to do all other things as may be incidental to the attainment of the above objects; and
- (i) to achieve the above objects through consensus decision-making where possible, but otherwise in accordance with the voting requirements in these Rules, the Act and the Regulations.
